The Impeachment Process

| Charged with crime | → | Formally accused by House of Representatives | → | Trial by Senate | → | Expelled from government if found guilty |

| Politicians commits offense | → | Govern–ment finds out about it | → | House reviews the charge | → | House votes and decides to accuse politicians | → | Trial begins in Senate | → | Senate decides on a verdict | → | If found guilty, impeach–ment from all offices | → | If found not guilty, politician/judge continues on |